PRICE—ONE CENT.

Mrs. Sallie McD. Humphrey is visiting at Washington.

Miss Pluvia Gill left Thursday for Oxford, O., to attend school.

Miss Jennie Schaefer returned Thursday evening from a visit to her brother John at California, and will leave this afternoon for a week's stay at Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stough, Mrs. George Pettit of Lexington, Mrs. Rose Payne of Paris, Mrs. C. W. Hutchison of Olan, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horrocks of Ashland, Messrs. Thurnburg, Mann, Boyd, Tucker and W. E. Carr of Covington, were here to attend the funeral of E. R. Stough.

Edgewood Cream keeps the skin soft and smooth. It's guaranteed at Ray's Drugstore.

John Brooke, aged 15 and colored, is in jail at Carlisle, charged with placing a log across the railroad track.

Miss Anna Lee Fristoe, formerly of this city, was married a few days ago in Covington to Mr. W. R. Stetler, formerly of Cincinnati.

Book-keeping—Prof. Leary will commence a class in book-keeping on Monday night. Consultation at O'Hara's Hardware store.

Amada Calvert yesterday filed suit for divorce from George Calvert. They have been married eighteen years and have six children.

Mrs. L. V. Davis will have her regular Fall and Winter Opening of Millinery on Friday and Saturday next, September 21st and 22nd.

The oil-drilling machinery for the Marshall tract in Fleming county is now being unloaded from C. and O. cars at Poplar street.

Mr. William L. Bessley of Bellevue and Miss Nannie L. Rawlings of Covington married Wednesday. The groom is a son of Mr. Ezekiel Bessley, formerly of this city, and now Postal Clerk on the L. and N. between Maysville and Richmond.

The Telephone Exchange will be moved to its new quarters over Murphy's Jewelry Store, beginning at 6 o'clock this evening, and the service will be rearranged for a few hours. It is hoped to have everything in working order tomorrow morning.

Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth of this city is now one of the Faculty of Miss Koller's School of Music at Dayton, O. In her prospectus of the school Miss Koller thus announces the accession of Mayville's talented daughter:

Miss Koller takes pleasure in presenting Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth, who will conduct the vocal department of the school.

Miss Wadsworth is remarkably well equipped for the position both by natural endowments and a thorough musical education, having studied the piano and the theory of music for many years before the discovery of a sympathetic and brilliant soprano voice, which decided her career.

Her vocal training has been entirely under the direction of Mr. H. W. Foley of Cincinnati.

Miss Wadsworth has had wide experience in concert work and teaching.

Peter McCabe Passes Away at His Home in This City Yesterday.

Mr. Peter McCabe, who was hit by a C. and O. passenger train a few days ago, died at his home on East Third street yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock, aged 75 years.

Mr. McCabe was twice married, six children and his second wife surviving, she being a Miss Cox of Lexington.

The children are Mrs. M. M. Scott of Winchester, J. S. McCabe of Ashland, I. S. McCabe of Springfield, and P. T. J. W. and Margaret of this city.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but will take place from St. Patrick's Church, with Father Jones officiating.

WAS A REGULAR "SCOOP"

"They Have Arrested the Newport Murderer at the Depot!"

This was the welcome tidings that came into The Ledger news foundry last afternoon, the News Editor, in his haste to dispatch a messenger to Corral the Scoop, forgetting to Thank the Clerical Informant.

Time-slinging! "Himme 4-11-4, please."

"Hello!"

"Hello, is that the P. D. Q. Depot?"

"Yes."

"Have you a murderer down there?"

"No; but they're after him."

And away went the Noser for News; and when he came back at the end of two hours and an eighth here's what he said:

"Somebody somewhere saw a colored man who came from somewhere some time and who was somewhat on his way to some place somewhere, and it was a dead sure shot that he was the man that was 'wanted' by somebody somewhere for something; but they haven't got him yet."

Moral—Don't believe anything you hear—and only half what you see.

THE ANTLERETTES WIN.

The "Elks" Mop Up the Earth With the Y. M. C. A. Baseballists.

After much boasting as to what they would do to 'em, the Y. M. C. A. Baseball aggregation went down in utter dismay at the hands of the hastily-formed Elks team last afternoon.

Captain Harrop had his forces well in hand at the start; but a few gyrations from short-stop Nene Collins, in which he captured the "Elks" where they were, and the wonderful "sprinting" of Dr. Allen Hodgson in base-running, soon discomfited the Y-men and landed the Elks'ettes on the shady side of Easy street by a score of 19 to 17.

If Captain Harrop has any "reserves" who think they know how to play baseball, the Captain of the Elks will be glad to arrange for another game.

HYMN AND ITS AUTHOR.

Was Written By John H. Newman, an Eminent English Divine.

The favorite Hymn of the late President McKinley, which has been brought into such popularity since his death, and which was sung by millions of voices throughout the land during services on the day of his funeral, is given below:

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The dawn, nor yet the day, when Thou wilt come;
Till I have reached my home, O Lord, my God,
I have not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
I loved to dwell and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I have a thousand sins, before Thy throne,
And yet I plead Thy blood, O Lord, my God,
To keep me still, O Lord, my God, and lead me on!
Thou power has blessed me, more I still
Thee more and more, O Lord, my God, and lead me on!
And with Thy power Thou angel's smile
Which I have loved to see, O Lord, my God, Kindly Light, O Lord, my God, and lead me on!
—Catholics John Henry Newman.

John Henry Newman was born in London February 21, 1801, and died at Edgbaston, August 11, 1890. For many years he was an eminent divine in the Anglican church, and among many other productions the Hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," was written during a voyage in the Mediterranean in 1823-31. In 1841 he resigned from the English Church and joined the Roman Catholics, and on May 12, 1875, he was created a Cardinal. His religious writings, comprising many volumes, are of the highest order. —EVINGING LEADER.

D. HUNT & SON.

GOEBEL'S SUBGRACE

GOEBELISM YET RAMPANT.

New York View of the Situation in This State.

UREY WOODSON'S DRASTIC PLAN!

Time has apparently done little to erase the stain left by William Goebel's sinister career in Kentucky life and Kentucky politics. Nearly two years after Goebel's tragic and his spirit of recklessness and violence still dominates the political party whose traditions he outraged and whose honor he tarnished in the mad pursuit of his own selfish ends. It was to be hoped that the tragedy at Frankfort would enforce its own moral against the lawless excesses of partisanship. But, if one is to judge from the utterances of the men on whom the mantle of the Kenton county statesman has fallen, the Democratic organization in Kentucky is still guided by that policy of greed and force which prompted the infamous theft a year and a half ago of the Governorship and most of the minor state offices.

The Hon. Urey Woodson, one of Mr. Goebel's lieutenants, who represents Kentucky on the Democratic National Committee, recently threw some instructive light on the present spirit and motives of the Goebel party. Like other advocates of the Goebel party, Mr. Woodson has a wholesome fear of any system of government in which the voice of the majority can find a full and free expression. He is altogether convinced that the existing gerrymander of the Legislative Districts will assure uninterrupted Democratic supremacy in the General Assembly, and he, therefore, advocates an even more partisan apportionment of representation by the next Legislature. Goebel ideas of political fairness and political decency are in every eye of this candid avowal:

"Kentucky should be so gerrymandered by the next Legislature that there will not be even a remote idea of the Republican party controlling the next Legislature or making any of the members of that party have several times demonstrated the fact that they do not know what to do with a state officer when they get it, and others, after claiming an election by the people, have shown their inability to hold it. Therefore, the time has come when it is time to be dealing with the Republicans of Kentucky."

INCENDIARY PAPERS RESPONSIBLE.

"How can we explain this tragedy? What harm had President McKinley ever done?" asked the Rev. John H. Willey, in the Nostrand Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, in Brooklyn; and he answered his own questions thus:

"Newspapers of an incendiary character had said he was the enemy of mankind. This is Anarchy. How can a man be the enemy of mankind who, only the day before he was shot, said: 'Our interest is in concord, and in our country. Yellow journals and their colleagues, Anarchy, are responsible for this good man's death.'"

"When the assassin struck the President he struck at the heart of this Republic."

THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER.

"The actual truth of the matter," says the New York Journal of Friday, rising to assume itself for its political cartoons, "The actual truth of the matter is that before this disaster its criticisms by the press of both parties had been of unusual severity—but during this period of excitement it is the Democratic press that has been conservative and the Republican press that has been incendiary."

The actual truth of the matter is that the "conservative" press of the Democratic press—at least of that portion which, like the Journal, indulged in vile political cartoons—consisted in refraining from the use of the libels of Oppar and of Davisport, from the morning the President was shot down by an assassin. Only that, and nothing more.

Another actual truth of the matter is the newspapers using the vile political cartoons, reproduced in the Journal, are feeling the acrimonious lash of public opinion and are cowering because of it.

FRANK IDINOW, who was placed under arrest at Cleveland, charged with offering $50,000 for the death of President Roosevelt, and who was found to be a parole convict, was taken back to the Ohio Penitentiary. His parole was revoked by telephone. The convict had violated his parole by getting drunk, so that, technically, he will be returned to the Penitentiary for this and not because of his Anarchistic threats. He was sent up in 1898 to serve seven years for burglary and larceny, and was paroled December 31, 1907. He will serve two years more. Mr. IDINOW is a fair type of other gentlemen Anarchists.

HON. JAMES ANDREW SCOTT OF FRANKFORT—WHO, BY THE WAY, WAS ONE OF THE CHOSEN ADVISERS AND STANCH PARTISANS OF THE LATE SENATOR GOEBEL—NOW EMPLOYED FOR THE DEFENSE OF JIM HOWARD, HAS GIVEN THIS STATEMENT TO THE PRESS:

"I have reasons to believe that between now and the opening of the Court, the Government will have the officers of Commonwealth will have come into the possession of all the facts and details of the foul conspiracy which resulted in the death of WILLIAM GOEBEL. I believe that when the conspiracy is laid bare it will be conclusively shown that JIM HOWARD was not the man behind the gun which did the deadly work, and that he was not one of the conspirators."

EMMA GOLDMAN, who glories in the title of "High Priestess of Anarchy," has set forth her doctrine in these thrills at God, Government and Law:

"There is no God. Religion is a superstition to which fools bow down."

"Government is an excuse of the rich to starve and murder the poor. Overthrow all Governments. Trample down Emperors, Kings, Czars, Presidents, Governors, Mayors and police."

"Violence is the only language necessary. Kill all tyrants."

"Marriage is a veil for love. Free love is what nature intended. Love is immortal."

"Let labor and capital war. Where more than one assembly to stop less speech than let killing begin. Let the state and the church be the harbors of thieves, all together. Carry a torch in one hand and a dagger in the other. When the time comes burn and cut to the heart."

"I shall live to teach. I shall live to agitate. It is my mission to drag America from its depths of infamy. It is my mission to drag down the oppressors and to lift up the oppressed."

"And yet this viper is permitted to live in America!"

Charles Crawford, once a prominent teacher in this county, noted for his skill in mathematics, died last Monday at the Robinson County Infirmary. He was born in this city.

SURE THING.

Dr. Louis J. Novichoff of New York tells the Congress of Criminal Anthropology that crime is an hereditary disease. This is correct, and the old-fashioned way of treating the ailment by a surgical operation on the neck of the sufferer is the surest and best remedy to prevent a spread of the epidemic.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. J. W. Bates of Corfu, N. Y., states: "I have used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills for two years under my hands of late and have fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over the disease of the nerves."

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to mental derangements, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills a day, after meals and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, and she has gained about 15 pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

Mrs. Fawcett of Marlboro, St. Clairsville, Mo., says: "I have used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and can recommend them to others as a good sound reliable nerve and general tonic. When I got the box of the Pills I was complaining of nervousness, weakness and pain through the shoulders—numbness in type—question not over good as usual. The effect of the medicine has been very satisfactory indeed. So marked the change toward health and comfort I can conscientiously say they are fine and what they are represented to be. All my advanced age I feel I am getting all the benefit possible."

Mrs. M. J. Hubbard of Railroad Avenue, St. Clairsville, Mo., says: "I like Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. I was nervous, sensitive, unable to sleep. I had not taken the medicine long when my nerves were steady and strong. My physical strength and energy back and my sleep sound and natural."

Send the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on every box. Price 50 cents a box—Six boxes for $2.50. Manufactured by Dr. A. W. Chase, Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BLOODY ENCOUNTER.

A Wagon Used as a Barricade in a Fight—Two Men Shot, One Probably Fatally.

Richmond, Ky., Sept. 21.—News has reached here of a bloody encounter Friday morning at Russell Springs between Albert and John Curtis on the one side, and Frank Tussey, a farmer, on the other. Tussey was on his way to his tobacco field and was overtaken by the Curtis brothers, who were armed with shotguns. They at once opened fire on Tussey, who promptly returned the shots from behind his wagon. A desperate battle followed. Tussey received 14 No. 4 shot in his back and arms, and is thought to be mortally wounded. Leslie Curtis received a bullet in the leg and one in the shoulder. Albert Curtis escaped unhurt. After the shooting the Curtis fled away leaving their victim for dead. Constable Gully was sent to the scene. A woman is said to have been the cause of the fight.

SHOT AND KILLED.

They Fought the Past to Engage in a Fatal Wrestling Match—Shooting at Large.

Inez, Ky., Sept. 21.—John Mollett, aged 18, was shot and instantly killed by Lindsey Wells, aged 20, on Greasy Creek. Ten years ago they quarreled at school and were chastised by their teacher. They had not exchanged words until a few days ago, when they met by chance and decided to forget past differences. Thursday they engaged in a friendly wrestling match, in which Mollett threw Wells, who thereupon whipped out a pistol and shot Mollett four times, each ball penetrating his skull. Wells is still at large.

Both Wags.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 21.—Mr. P. Booker Reed has the distinction of having served Louisville as mayor, both as a democrat and republican. He was mayor from 1857 to 1857, having been elected as a democrat. Later he became a republican, and is now president of the board of aldermen, by virtue of which he is acting mayor while Mayor Weaver is away.

Troops Disbanded.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 21.—Adj. Gen. Murray Friday afternoon notified Capt. Ellis, in command of Company C, of the Kentucky state guard, to dismiss his men and allow them to go to their homes, and they were at once dismissed. The men have been in the army for several days, expecting to be sent to Madisonville.

Looking For Him.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 21.—William Schneider, a very short man, who was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct for alleged disrespectful speeches against President McKinley, failed to appear in court Friday and his bond was declared forfeited. The police are looking for him.

Destroyed By Fire.

Corbin, Ky., Sept. 21.—Fire here destroyed one of the largest blocks in town. Inclosure here was the Martin hotel. Dryden house, Shotwell house and Miller's bakery and restaurant. The total loss is $5,000; partly insured.

Fire at Hopkinsville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 21.—Fire in the wagon department of Forbes & Bros' manufacturing plant was with difficulty suppressed. Origin not known. Loss $10,000, covered by insurance.

FIRST OFFICIAL ACT

The New President Signed the Commission of Brig. Gen. James M. Bell.

HE CARRIED OUT M'KINLEY'S WISH

The Cabinet Discussed the Electoral Law Formed by the Cuban Constitutional Convention.

President Roosevelt Disdains a Carriage and Walks Briskly and Alone From Executive Mansion to Sister's Home.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The new president held a cabinet meeting Friday after returning from Canton. He was driven from the depot direct to the white house.

The most important topic discussed by the cabinet was the electoral law formed by the Cuban constitutional convention, of which, it is understood, the president's advisers expressed their approval.

The first official act performed by the new president was the signing of the commission of Brig. Gen. Jas. M. Bell. In elevating Col. Bell to the grade of brigadier general, President Roosevelt gives the first proof of his announced intention to carry out the wishes of his predecessor.

About 1,200 electors, shortly after the conclusion of the cabinet meeting, President Roosevelt left the white house, to go to the residence of his sister, the wife of Commander Cowles, of the navy, for luncheon.

Will Live in the White House. Disdaining a carriage, he walked swiftly and alone. No one had known when he would leave his office, and as he passed briskly out of the grounds of the executive mansion he attracted little attention, scarcely anybody recognizing him. He crossed Pennsylvania avenue into Lafayette square and thence up Sixteenth street to his destination. In the course of an hour and a half he returned to the white house, still alone, and still walking.

Secretary Cortelyou put an end to the rumors that President Roosevelt would live in some residence removed from the city. "I am going to be a plucky accommodator to the whole family here," he said, "but President Harrison's family was about as large, and as comfortable. The president will probably sleep under the white house roof for the first time Monday night. Tomorrow and the children will probably move in next Wednesday."

RE-COMMISSIONED. The United States Ambassadors Abroad May Be Supplied With New Credentials.

Washington, Sept. 21.—While it has not decided the question definitely, the state department is inclined to believe that all of the United States ambassadors abroad must be supplied with new credentials. This may be true also of the ambassadors from foreign powers and residents in Washington. This belief is based upon the fact that the ambassador represents the person of the sovereign or president. This is not true of the ministers, who, therefore, probably will not be required to be re-commissioned. In the case of a few of the ambassadors, however, they had not presented their credentials at the time of President McKinley's demise, new commissions will be required.

STORMED THE WALLS. Party of 40,000 People Attacked Chimo, China, Many Killed on Both Sides.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 21.—A party of 40,000 people stormed the walls of Chimo, China, September 2 because the magistrate refused to grant their request to reduce the indemnity tax. He had been warned that the city would be seized if he did not comply. The magistrate posted his soldiers on the city walls and made an heroic defense. Many were killed on both sides. The first day and the next day the forces of the people were swelled to over 100,000. The magistrate finally yielded, and the extra taxes were rescinded. An imperial commissioner has been sent to Chimo to investigate.

COAST ARTILLERY. Secretary of War, in a General Order, Directed a Distribution of the 120 Cannons.

Washington, Sept. 21.—In a general order the secretary of war has directed a distribution of the 120 cannons of coast artillery. The cannons are to be distributed in the west as follows: California, two; Fort Miley, Cal., two; Fort Stevens, Cal., three; Fort Columbia, Wash., one; Fort Stevens, Ore., two; Fort Casey, Wash., two; Fort Stevens, Ore., two; Fort Warren, Wash., two; Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, two; Philippine Islands, four.

UNDER SUSPICION. Washington Police Looking For a Man Who Asked For the Address of Roosevelt's Sister.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The police are looking for a man who approached several pedestrians and asked the address of President's Roosevelt's sister, the wife of Commander Cowles, of the navy. Several officers were detailed to guard the Cowles residence. The man is described as about 40 years old, speaks with a foreign accent, has light moustache, wears dark clothes and carries a box about eight inches long and three and a half wide.

THE CZAR IN FRANCE.

Gen. De Bauldeville, Formerly Chief of the French Staff, Received By Emperor Nicholas.

Complégné, Sept. 21.—Two interesting incidents of the day were the reception of Emperor Nicholas of Gen. De Bauldeville, former chief of the French staff, and the baptism of the infant son of the Count de Montebello, French ambassador in Russia. De Bauldeville was chief of the French staff during the previous visit of the czar and gained the friendship of the father of Nicholas while French ambassador in St. Petersburg.

Notwithstanding this explanation, the nationalists, who only remember the part Gen. De Bauldeville played in the Dreyfus affair, exist in his reception of the czar as a reflection upon the government, declaring that it is connected with dissatisfaction in the army with Gen. Andre's conduct of military affairs. This, however, is absolutely untrue.

The baptism of the son of the Count de Montebello took place in the apartment of the czar after his return from the drive. His majesty had promised to act as godfather. The czar expressed an intention to act personally, and the rite of baptism was performed by the czar.

Only the czar and czarina and members of the family of the count were present. The child was christened Nicholas after the czar, who said the credo in Russian.

ANARCHIST SYMPATHIZER.

Was Brought Into Unconsciousness on Board an Oyster Steep and Thrown Overboard.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 21.—The captain of a small oyster sloop which arrived here said that shortly after President McKinley's death a shot appeared at Bliville, Md., and secured a place as hand on a sloop. The sloop was fairly well dressed and educated the day after the president died. A passenger on a passing steamer saw a newspaper aboard the sloop containing an account of the death. The sloop secured it, and while the crew were waiting for him to read the story he exclaimed:

"Good, and Teddy will be the next in a short time."

The crew set upon him and severely injured him, rendering him unconscious. The captain and mate intervened, but later, when the steamer was out of sight, the crew picked the unconscious form up and threw it overboard.

OUT FOR A DRIVE. Mrs. McKinley and Sister Went to West Lawn Cemetery and Entered the Tomb.

Canton, O., Sept. 21.—Shortly before noon Mrs. McKinley was taken for a drive in company with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Barber. They went to West Lawn cemetery as Mrs. McKinley and the late president so often did when in Canton. While they were there the gates of the approaches to the vault were temporarily closed. Mrs. McKinley was assisted from the carriage by Dr. Rixey, and with her sister entered the tomb, remaining a few minutes during which the gate reclosed the lines in front.

Capt. Lemly appeared to be quite as strong walking to and from the carriage as she was when she left the tomb from Washington on Wednesday. It was reported Friday morning at the house that she was still bearing up as well as could be expected, and that her condition is encouraging.

MARINES ON GUARD

All Save Members of the Court of Inquiry and Witnesses Were Barred.

ADM. DEWEY WAS PROMPTLY ON TIME

Four Witnesses Were Examined, Capt. Higginson, of the Massachusetts, Being the First.

All Irrelevant Questions and Hearings Evidence Will Be Cut Out—This Will Shorten the Term of the Court.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The Schley court of inquiry reconvened, and before adjournment examined four witnesses.

Marines were on guard at the railing, and before the court opened barred out all save members of the court and witnesses. Later Judge Advocate General Lemly arranged to allow members of the press associations within the railing.

The most important incident of the day was the decision of the court withdrawing a question, put by the chief clerk, asking a witness to give his opinion concerning a point under controversy. The witness was Adm. Higginson, who participated in the Santiago campaign as captain of the battleship Massachusetts. This vessel at one time was a part of a flying squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, and the court asked him to state whether all possible measures were taken to capture or destroy the Spanish vessel, Cristobal Colon as it lay in Santiago harbor from May 27 to June 1, 1898.

Adm. Higginson objected to the question on the ground that a reply would involve an opinion and not a statement of facts. Judge Advocate Lemly admitted that the question was an irrelevant question of this character, and the court with drew this interrogatory.

Witnesses Admonished. It is generally admitted that this decision will have the effect of nullifying the term of the court, as will also the court's main intention to cut out irrelevant questions and all hearsay testimony in several cases the witnesses were admonished to relate only events coming within their own observation.

Adm. Dewey showed himself a prompt and practical young officer. He called the court to order exactly at the designated hour, and adjourned it just as promptly at 4 o'clock.

The witnesses Friday were Adm. Higginson, who commanded the battleship Massachusetts during the Spanish war; Capt. C. M. Chester, who commanded the cruiser Cincinnati; Maj. Thomas N. Wood, of the marine corps, who commanded the marine detachment at Santiago; and Commander Giles R. Herber, who was executive officer of the Texas, the latter being on the stand when the court adjourned. The attendance of the public was small.

No Objection to Adm. Ramsay. Capt. Lemly introduced evidence in the senate document relating to the Sampson-Schley controversy, together with hydrographic office charts showing the scenes of the battle. "Now I will offer," said Capt. Lemly, "a chart showing the position of the vessels off Santiago."

The chart was put before the court a blue print about 3 by 5 feet. "I object," spoke up Capt. Parlier of Schley's command, quickly. "The chart is grossly incorrect. It places the coast line six miles further south and four miles further west than it is in fact."

"The chart does not prove anything," explained Capt. Lemly. "It is not put as evidence, but for reference."

Capt. Lemly, the judge advocate general, then read the order of the navy department, appointing Adm. Ramsay to be a member of the court. "I ask you, Adm. Schley, if you have any objection to any member of this court," said Capt. Lemly.

"I have not," replied Adm. Schley. Capt. Lemly then swore in the members of the court, the three bending forward, and each grasping a small Bible.

Capt. Lemly was himself sworn in by Adm. Dewey, and then the court entered the oath to the clerk and reporter of the court.

The Cable Completed. Washington, Sept. 21.—The signal office of the war department Friday received a message from Manila saying that the last link of cable had been laid which allowed telegraph communication with the southernmost islands of the Philippine group. Hereafter messages had to be carried across a point about the middle of the group by boat.

Fire in the Business Portion. Atleahon, Kan., Sept. 21.—Almost the entire business part of Atleahon, Kan., was destroyed by fire, over a dozen buildings, including Woltersten's general store and the National Washington Machine Co.'s factory being destroyed. Estimated loss, $50,000. Origin of fire unknown.

Prince Chia Hunsen. Daniel, Sept. 21.—Emperor William has conferred the Grand Cross of the Order of the Red Eagle upon Prince Chun, head of the Chinese legation for his services for the murder of Baron von Ketteler.

RAN AMUCK.

A Drunken Private Fired Indiscriminately at His Comrades in the Barracks.

Fort Mead, S. D., Sept. 21.—Private Charles Lynch, of Company M while intoxicated with drink, entered the barracks Friday, drew his revolver, and began firing indiscriminately at his comrades. One bullet struck Private Schell in the thigh and another hit Private Lynch in the stomach. A third shot Lynch in the leg, and he was overpowered. Private Amick died Friday night. Lynch had been shot in the back of the head and the body was found in the barracks.

Funeral of Bishop Whipple. Faribault, Minn., Sept. 21.—The body of the late Bishop Whipple was consigned to the grave here. The services were solemn and impressive, and were witnessed by thousands of people. Private services at the home were performed early, also later holy communion was celebrated in the cathedral for the members of the parish and visitors.

Irreversible Pastor. Washington, Sept. 21.—Rev. Dr. W. S. Stafford was appointed the irreversible pastor of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church in this city. St. Patrick's parish is the richest in Washington, the church owning real estate worth $100,000. Dr. Stafford is noted for his oratory and scholarship. He was a warm friend of President McKinley.

Miss Conger Wedded. Chicago, Sept. 21.—Miss Laura Conger and Lieut. Fred E. Buchanan, U. S. A., were married Friday night at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. S. McCormick, 4390 Lake avenue, Miss Conger is the daughter of the United States minister.

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED—QUALITY.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its use secures freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please read the directions carefully and printed on the front of every package.
